Christ as a Missionary

- Christ was a home missionary in the house of Lazarus.
- He was a foreign missionary when the Greeks came to Him.
- A city missionary when He taught in Samaria.
- A Sunday School missionary when He opened up the Word of God and set men to studying the Scripture.
- A children’s missionary when He took them in His arms and blessed them.
- A missionary to the poor when He opened the eyes of the blind beggar.
- A missionary to the rich when He opened the spiritual eyes of Zacchaeus.
- Even on the cross Christ was a missionary to the robber, and His last command was the missionary commission.

Secret Pal Banquet - November 3rd the ladies will have a Secret Pal Brunch. This is a time when they reveal their secret pals from the year before and then pick new pals. We will meet at the Dutch Has restaurant in Columbiana, OH. at 9:30am. The cost will be $9.25. Please see Mrs. Linda Scott for your ticket by October 28th.

Men's Conference - November 9th and 10th the men will be going to Mansfield, OH for a men's conference. The cost is $20.00 plus the share of a hotel room. It will be a wonderful blessing.

So Send I You

Edith Margaret Clarkson
Born: June 8, 1915, Melville, Saskatchewan, Canada.

So send I you to labor unrewarded
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown

To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing
So send I you to toil for Me alone.

So send I you to bind the bruised and broken

O'er wand'ring souls to work, to weep, to wake

To bear the burdens of a world a-weary
So send I you to suffer for My sake

So send I you to loneliness and longing With heart a-hung'ring for the loved and known

Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one

So send I you to know my love alone

So send I you to leave your life's ambition
To die to dear desire, self-will resign
To labor long and love where men revile you

So send I you to lose your life in Mine.

So send I you to hearts made hard by hatred
To eyes made blind because they will not see

To spend - tho it be blood - to spend and spare not

So send I you to taste of Calvary

"As the Father hath sent me, so send I you"
